At the Boys & Girls Club of the Bellport Area, 471 Atlantic Ave, Bellport.

Roles

Justin Hicks - Recently hired, eager-to-please assistant to Bingham. Offbeat, sweet, anxious, bundle of nerves with unruly hair. Romantically involved with Louise.

Louise Heindbedder - Waitress at Quail Valley Country Club. A knock-out, leggy, good-natured, and a little ditzy, but studious. Can cry at a moment's notice.

Henry Bingham - Executive Director of Quail Valley CC. Stuffy, exasperated, determined to do what it takes to win.

Richard "Dickie" Bell - Executive Director of Crouching Squirrel Country Club. Often obnoxious and loud, in both voice and clothing, but tries to come off as good-natured.

Pamela Peabody - Vice-President at Quail Valley CC, Dickie's ex-wife. Beautiful, tanned and very sophisticated, but a bit loose.

Muriel Bingham - A loud, sturdy woman, generally overbearing, married to Bingham. Owns antique shop that becomes part of a wager.

Synopsis

Bingham, executive director of Quail Valley Country Club, is in a difficult position, less by finding out that his newly hired hand, Justin, is in love with Louise, the waitress at the club, but by the discovery that the golfer he thought would play for his club has switched sides recruited by his counterpart and opponent, the cocky and arrogant Dickie, executive director of Crouching Squirrel Country Club. Now a huge bet he had foolishly wagered is now likely to be lost.

Fortunately, he discovers that Justin is actually quite a good golfer and finagles his nomination. Justin does not disappoint. But when Justin learns that Louise has lost the engagement ring he gave her - she accidentally flushed it down the toilet - he becomes unglued.

The game resumes the next day, but an upset Justin takes an unfortunate swing, breaking his arm. Bingham is desperate, and the appearance of his wife, Muriel, complicates the matter, as she catches him much too close to Pamela, his sex-starved vice-president. Can Bingham find a replacement for Justin to win the game, win the wager and get his life in order?
